

Due week seven:

1. First draft: Materials and Methods (worth 10 points).
 - a. Clear wording that explains your techniques and presented in the proper sequence (2 points)
 - i. Presented in the order performed (or reasonably close to it)
 - b. Omit excessive detail. (2 points)
 - c. Use references from peer-reviewed journals whenever possible (2 points)
 - d. Proper use of subheadings, numbers. (2 points)
 - e. Typed, double-spaced, hard copy, turned in at the beginning of class. (2 points)

2. First draft: Results (worth 10 points).
 - a. Clear wording that explains the highlights of your results and presented in the proper sequence (1 point)
 - i. Presented in the order performed (or reasonably close to it)
 - b. Omit excessive detail by assuming future figures and/or tables. (1 point)
 - c. Omit interpretation (1 point)
 - d. Proper use of tense, numbers. (1 point)
 - e. Typed, double-spaced, hard copy, turned in at the beginning of class. (1 point)

3. Peer review of Materials and Methods, and Results (20 points)
 - a. See Peer Review form